Press Release

Georgia Soil and Water Conservation Commission

The Board of Commissioners for GSWCC held a Zoom Meeting on March 17, 2021.

March 17, 2021: Mitch Attaway, Executive Director of GSWCC, is pleased to announce that the Board of Commissioners voted unanimously to appoint Bob Martin Chairman of the Board and Vikki Consiglio Vice-Chairman of the Board.

Bob Martin is an agribusiness man and self-employed farmer in Irwin County. He serves on the Local Farm Service Agency Committee for the Ben Hill-Irwin office and is a district supervisor for the Middle South Georgia Soil and Water Conservation District.

Vikki Townsend Consiglio has served as the Executive Director of the Georgia Utility Contractors Association for twenty-four years. She has over thirty years of foundation and corporate board experience serving on a multitude of construction industry, civic, and religious boards. In 2012, she was selected to serve as a supervisor for the Henry County Soil and Conservation Commission Board.

For Release as soon as possible.
