

On July 26 GSWCC Region I and II employees Ashley Temples and Jennifer Standridge were participants in a tour of the UGA Georgia Mountain Research & Education Center. The tour included "behind the scene" access to the center's secure areas where they learned about current projects and their importance to Georgia's agriculture industry.

