

Walton County SWCD names Six Figs Farm as Conservationist of the Year

Six Figs Farm is located near Good Hope and owned by Mikkel and Sunday Antonison. The organic farm uses regenerative agriculture practices to grow figs, elderberries, and asparagus. They also raise ducks, chickens, and honey bees. The Antonison's are assisted on their farm by their children Katarina and Lee. The Antonisons are pictured here with Walton County District Supervisors and NRCS Personnel.